

A photograph of Ron Barassi, an elderly man with a mustache, wearing a teal button-down shirt. He is smiling and pointing his right index finger upwards.

RON BARASSI FOR DASSI

DASSI meets your Mum and Dad's needs

When you were a youngster, your Mum and Dad looked after you. Now, as the decades have rolled by, it's Mum and Dad who are increasingly relying on you for support and advice. And, of course, you give it as best you can.

You know that your Mum and Dad value their independence and their lifestyle choices. And, naturally, they love living in their own home. But you also know they need that bit of extra support now with day-to-day living.

So take my advice and contact DASSI.

They're a not-for-profit organisation that knows how to provide personalised support for people as they age and keep their independence at home – all over Victoria.

Visit the DASSI website: www.dassi.com.au or call DASSI for a free information pack on 1300 032 774.

And you can tell DASSI Barassi sent you.

Head office: 582 Heidelberg Road,
Fairfield, VIC, 3078.
Tel 03 9488 9100

www.dassi.com.au

